Download 3D Game Website BuilderLast night, Katy Perry kicked off an additional leg of her Neon Lights tour at Petco Park in San Diego, California. Her co-headlining show with Lionel Richie featured a fair share of her usual setlist staples, but Perry wasn't afraid to deviate from what she's played throughout the last three-plus months. The latter half of the show proved even more unique in comparison to the first half, as Perry took the stage with a 12-person choir, holding rehearsals throughout the night. From the middle of the set, Perry performed "Firework," the title track from her record-breaking album of the same name and her first number one single, in the middle of the choir that was constantly singing the song's refrain. Perry and the choir then held a brief photo-op on stage with a newly-released graphic that featured the oncoming 'Fireworks,' signifying that the
