I have been moving a shitload of furniture all day long, it's exhausting. Also, my internet isn't working properly yet and my computer is still at school... Which sucks because i have my art journals in there. Hi everyone! I have some good news. I FINALLY got my copy of Penny loafer's new book, Youthfull Threads. I'm totally in love with it. It's filled with some of her most yummy recipes and the full instructions on how to make various fabric objects, like the kimono pocket handbags. There are 18 total patterns in the book, so there is a nice selection of patterns to try from beginner sewing, to more advanced, to classic. Her first baby is due at the end of September, it's making me kinda nervous! But I should be an old pro by then. Hope you all have a nice weekend (or week). I'll try to post more about the book later. I made these a few days ago. They were super easy to make and I love them. And the best thing? They're 100% handmade. No machine could make something so intricate and well finished.Q: Can one ask a friend to be a referral without being in the same state?
